GREETINGS FROM DUBLIN: I was hoping to return to Cape Breton again but happily for Bishop Dunn he has all the bases covered. My happy memories of my time in the parish linger vivid, strong, and memorable. Thank you for all the emails. I hope to finish the book, 'Reality Check', that I started in Talbot House. It is a Cape Breton book. I plan to return sometime in the Fall to launch the book. But, first, I will run it by Bishop Dunn. Do remember me to all the people I remember so well, and please give a special greeting to all in Talbot House. My warmest and best, Vincent Travers
