PARISH NEWS

Concerts in Catholic Churches - At the June 13th, 2019 meeting of the Council of Priests with Bishop Dunn a POLICY for hosting concerts in churches was discussed. The Liturgical Commission had studied this issue and Bishop Dunn said this issue is covered in the 1987 document from the Congregation for Divine Worship Concerts in Churches. It was decided that parishes and pastoral councils should give due consideration to the following points from this document:

Music at the concerts should “serve to promote piety or religion”, e.g., preparing for major liturgical feasts, creating a setting of beauty conducive to meditation, so as to arouse even in those who are distant from the Church an openness to spiritual values, or keeping alive the treasures of Church music. In order that the sacred character of a church be conserved in the matter of concerts, the Bishop can specify that:

- a. Requests are to be made in writing, in good time, indicating the date and time of the proposed concert, the program giving the works and the names of the composers.
- b. After having received the authorization of the Ordinary (Bishop), the rectors and parish priests of the churches should arrange details with the choir and orchestra so that the requisite norms are observed.
- c. Entrance to the church must be without payment and open to all. [In the Diocese of Antigonish, the emphasis should be that the fees are donations.]

- d. The performers and the audience must be dressed in a manner which is fitting to the sacred character of the place.
- e. The musicians and the singers should not be placed in the sanctuary. The greatest respect is to be shown to the altar, the president’s chair and the ambo.
- f. The Blessed Sacrament should be, as far as possible, reserved in a side chapel or in another safe and suitably adorned place (cf. C.I.C., can 938, par. 4).
- g. The concert should be presented or introduced not only with historical or technical details, but also in a way that fosters a deeper understanding and an interior participation on the part of the listeners.
- h. The organizer of the concert shall declare in writing that he accepts legal responsibility for expenses involved, for leaving the church in order, and for any possible damage incurred.

Council of Priests, Bishop Brian Dunn

Note: In light of this Diocesan resolution, I have made a request to Bishop Dunn for St Joseph Parish North Sydney to host a concert of sacred music during the Marian month of October 2019. Kay Batherson has agreed to be the director of the concert and I am grateful to Kay for organizing the line up for this beautiful event. Since we are not permitted to charge a fee for a concert in a Catholic Church, donations will be accepted and split equally between the cemetery and heat for the parish. “Bishop Dunn has approved of our concert to honour Mary, the wife of St. Joseph for Sunday, October 6, 2019.”

Please Note: This is the final bulletin for the summer

Holy Hour – is the first Saturday of each month at 9 am.

Email addresses – We will be contacting all parishioners throughout the month of June and part of July to update our parish records to include an email address on file. We will be using the email address to keep everyone up-to-date with bulletins, cancellations, etc.

Cemetery Mass – will be held on Sunday July 14, 2019 at 10 am. There is a sign-up sheet at the back of the church for those wanting roses for the mass; the cost is 5.00 per rose and must be ordered by June 30.

Schedules - The new Hospitality and gift Bearers schedules will be available next week in the vesty!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

What is the link between the sacraments and the Church?

Christ has entrusted the sacraments to his Church. They are the sacraments "of the Church" in a twofold sense: they are "from her" insofar as they are actions of the Church which is the sacrament of Christ's action; and they are "for her" in as much as they build up the Church.
