THANK-YOU: The Under One Umbrella organizing committee, want to express gratitude for your support of this year's event. Over 900 people experiencing or at-risk of experiencing homelessness in the CBRM were supported. Over 570 hot meals were served, 640 individuals received free clothing and bedding, 900 comfort and care packages were received, 312 received health services and over 70 haircuts were provided. We had 180 volunteers from across our community. The event was a representation of what teamwork and collaboration can accomplish; our community truly came together to support this vital initiative and we thank you for your kindness and generosity. Next years' Under One Umbrella event will be on November 7, 2020.
